37th Sunday after Pentecost — Zacchaeus Sunday

1601 S. Jupiter Rd. Allen, TX 75002 — www.stsavaoca.org
Orthodox Church in America, Diocese of Dallas

Today's Service

When the women disciples of the Lord learned from the angel the joyous message of Thy Resurrection, they cast away the ancestral curse and elatedly told the apostles: Death is overthrown! Christ God is risen, granting the world great mercy!"
(Resurrectional Troparion—Tone 4)

Thou didst become a firm pillar in the Church of Christ, wise Haralambos; a lamp of everlasting light to the world: well known to the world through thy martyrdom, thou didst dispel the dark night of idolatry. Boldly intercede with Christ God that He may save our souls!
(Troparion for the Hieromartyr Haralambos)

Epistle — I Timothy 4:9-15

This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptance. For to this end we both labor and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Savior of all men, especially of those who believe. These things command and teach. Let no one despise your youth, but be an example to the believers in word, in conduct, in love, in spirit, in faith, in purity. Till I come, give attention to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine. Do not neglect the gift that is in you, which was given to you by prophecy with the laying on of the hands of the eldership. Meditate on these things; give yourself entirely to them, that your progress may be evident to all.

Gospel — Luke 19:1-10

Then Jesus entered and passed through Jericho. Now behold, there was a man named Zacchaeus who was a chief tax collector, and he was rich. And he sought to see who Jesus was, but could not because of the crowd, for he was of short stature. So he ran ahead and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see Him, for He was going to pass that way. And when Jesus came to the place, He looked up and saw him, and said to him, "Zacchaeus, make haste and come down, for today I must stay at your house." So he made haste and came down, and received Him joyfully. But when they saw it, they all complained, saying, "He has gone to be a guest with a man who is a sinner." Then Zacchaeus stood and said to the Lord, "Look, Lord, I give half of my goods to the poor; and if I have taken anything from anyone by false accusation, I restore fourfold." And Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house, because he also is a son of Abraham; for the Son of Man has come to seek and to save that which was lost."

Today the Orthodox Church commemorates St. Scholastica (AD 543), sister of St. Benedict of Nursia; the Hieromartyr Charalambos, Bishop of Magnesia in Thessaly, and Martyrs Porphyrius, Bapthus and three women Martyrs (AD 202); the Synaxis of the Hierarchs of Novgorod, Joachim, Luke, Theodore, Herman, Arkadii, John, Gabriel, Martyrii, Anthony, Basil, Moses, Simeon, Evfim and Aftonii; the Right Believing Princess Anna of Novgorod (AD 1056); the Venerable Prokhor of the Kiev Caves; and numerous others.

Through the prayers of your holy saints, O Lord Jesus Christ, have mercy on us.

Announcements

Father Photius' office hours are available as listed at the end of the page below. Confession is available each week after Vespers. However, if needed you may also schedule a different time by calling Father to make an appointment.

The small groups are now studying the Sermon on the Mount with the help of St. John Chrysostom's commentary on the Gospel of Matthew. To find the new meeting times and locations, the small group flyer has details listed.

A reminder that our archbishop, Vladyka Alexander will be visiting us next Saturday, February 16th at 9am for our inaugural hierarchical liturgy. Many of our friends from neighboring parishes are expected to be present with us. To help with hospitality, please confer with the coordinator Jesse.

As a reminder to our parish council members, our February meeting is scheduled for this afternoon following coffee hour.
